

NEW MEXICO RISING

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Films and Conversation – Building Community to Address Climate Disruption

UNM Continuing Education Center
1634 University Boulevard NE, Albuquerque, NM 87131

SEPTEMBER 6-7, 2019

FILMS

CAVU Premiere in ABQ: Wildlife Without Borders: Wildlife Across the West, the first film in a new series
What isn't there to love about New Mexico?
Changing Landscape
Is New Mexico ready to be the next Saudi Arabia?
Unfractured (2017)
The American Southwest: Are we running dry? (23 min.)
The Soil Story (4 min.)
Sacred Land, Sacred Water

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Using the media to get our message out, Gabriel Vasquez & April March
Climate Change effects on wildlife management and public lands, Jesse Deubel & Tarin Nix
The Green Amendment: Securing our right to a healthy environment, Maya van Rossum
Changing personal habits to make a difference, Craig Barth
Resilience in New Mexico Agriculture, Christina Allday-Bondy
Opportunities to advance climate-related policy at the state and local level, Melanie Stansbury & Isaac Benton

SPEAKERS

Ray Powell, former NM Commissioner of Public Lands
Dr. David Gutzler, Ph.D., UNM Professor of Climatology
Dr. Sandra Steingraber
Elizabeth J. Kistin Keller, Ph.D., First Lady of Albuquerque
Kelsey Rader, Sustainability Officer, City of Albuquerque
Maya van Rossum, author and activist
Delese Dellios, with 350.org & Youth activists
Theresa Cardenas, President, Middle Rio Grande Water Advocates
Tarin Nix, State Land Commission
Phoebe Suina, Cochiti and San Felipe Pueblos
Donald T. Phillips, geologist and screenwriter
Craig Barth, publisher and filmmaker

Vegetarian lunch will be served. Please bring your own reusable water bottle.

Program is subject to change as opportunities arise.
View the detailed schedule and register online at nmclimatefilmfest.org